Fall Colors are Coming!

We have Been Busy Planting Tulips!

It is that time of year again at Oregon Flowers, Tulip time! We have been busy planting tulips for the upcoming season. As the tulip bulbs arrive from Holland, we have been planting 100,000 bulbs each day (as seen in the photo to the left). This year we will plant around 2.5 million tulip bulbs in 50 different varieties. The entire planting season will last from the end of October through the end of November. Once the bulbs are planted, they are cooled down to about 45 degrees Fahrenheit for 10-14 weeks, then transported to a cooler that drops them down to 30 degrees Fahrenheit. Once winter is simulated the beautiful tulips will be available in late December in a variety of colors and shapes.

Brannan Street Wholesale

Brannan Street Wholesale has been doing business with Oregon Flowers for the last 24 years. Located at the San Francisco Flower Mart, Brannan Street supports both retail and wholesale customers. Barbara Schnur, Sales Manager, likes that "Oregon Flowers still has a strong tradition of doing business like Brannan Street." Week in and week out there is a consistent standard that was not lost over the years. Brannan Street customers have come to expect the quality and consistent grading system of lilies each week, but they defiantly look forward to Eremurus season. Brannan Street was recently featured on UBloom, and I had the opportunity to be there during the live shooting. Please take a look at the link provided at the end of the page or by going to www.UBloom.com.
