

WHAT'S NEW AT OREGON FLOWERS?

SPECIAL POINTS OF INTEREST:

COMING SOON!

Tulips: Its only Fall, but tulip season is fast approaching. We will have tulips available around the middle of December in white and red. After the new year, we will have a larger selection available!

Ilex: After the leaves have fallen off, the breathtaking view of brightly colored berries are visible on every stem. What a joy to have such color in the winter.

(Available in Orange & Red)

Rose Hips: Pumpkin

Pumpkin Rose Hips are now available!

The Rose Hips' vibrant pumpkin seed pods provide a beautiful and ornamental look for the Fall. These bright and beautiful branches will be a nice reminder that fall is here!

Since 2004, we have been working on providing beautiful Rose Hips. This year we are offering Pumpkin Rose Hips. These amazing Pumpkin Rose Hips come from a large pink rose that blooms in the summer. Once the rose sheds its petals the hips begin to develop. In the Fall, the Pumpkin Rose Hips have a thick, thorny stem with large orange colored hips on the top.

Martin's Message

With Fall fast approaching and the rain on its way, here at Oregon Flowers, Inc., we are busy finishing the last few projects on the new greenhouse. The new two acre greenhouse expansion will focus on growing Oriental and OT lilies. With the use of more light and a better greenhouse, we can supply a more consistent crop throughout the year. Scheduled planting will start mid October, of which the first lilies will be cut mid February.

During the month of September, Oregon Flowers Inc celebrated a few monumental days. We were fortunate to celebrate Jennifer's 15 years in sales and Sergio's 25 years as a grower at Oregon Flowers Inc. Their dedication and hard work has provided our customers decades of top quality flowers. With the younger generation stepping into the business, such as Jacinth Reese (sales/marketing) and Tyler Messers (grower/manager), the Oregon Flowers, Inc. business contains a dream team of young enthusiasm and countless years of experience.

Fall Colors— Asiatic & Orientals

Now that fall is here, we are preparing for the fall colors to arrive. It is very hard to "predict" what will be "hot" in the upcoming season due to the fact that we need to place our orders for bulb varieties far in advance. But, it seems like a no brainer that the fall will bring higher demands of red, orange, and yellow. We are prepared for the increase in demand in these colors in Asiatic varieties, LA Hybrids as well as Orientals. In Asiatics we have beautiful varieties of red such as Red Sensation and Black-out; in yellow we have Serrada, Pavia and Yellow Diamond; and in orange we have the tried and true Brunello as well as Bariton and Tresor. We have increased our LA Hybrid numbers as well, so expect to see more Original Love, orange and Royal Sunset. When it comes to the Oriental Lily varieties, we have beautiful deep reds in Mambo and Corvara. Be sure to look for these stunning varieties!
